

Career Affirmations for Social Workers

I am optimistic about my present and my future.

I bring value to the social work profession.

I deserve good things in my career and life.

I attract career opportunities that align with my passions and purpose.

I am a confident and courageous social worker.

I am paid well for my expertise, education, and experience.

I am grateful for a strong, supportive professional network.

My voice matters and I make a difference daily.

I am successful in my career because I operate with authenticity.

I am worthy of success and abundance in my career.

I am committed to my career goals because my goals are important.

My work efforts are appreciated and acknowledged.

I am the architect of my career success.

I am constantly learning and growing in my skillset.

I deserve to do work that fills my heart, mind, and wallet.

Nicki Sanders, MSW, is a Social Work Career Empowerment Coach committed to eliminating the old narrow view of social work.